

SPOT AN OVERDOSE

---

An opioid overdose requires immediate medical attention. If you suspect an overdose, call 911 immediately, and give a precise address and/or description of your location.

Face is extremely pale and/or clammy.

Fingernails or lips have a blue or purple color.

Body is limp.

Person is vomiting or making gurgling noises.

Person will not wake or is unable to speak.

Breathing and/or heartbeat is very slow or stopped.

YOU CAN NARCAN®

---

Naloxone, better known by the brand name Narcan is a medication that can reverse opioid overdoses. It's easy to use and available for free all over Minnesota. Anyone can get it and use it to save lives.

FIND NALOXONE
HERE